

ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS

The Environmental Impact Statement will include an assessment of social, economic, and environmental effects resulting from implementation of the proposed action.

Key topics include the following:

- Traffic Noise
- Air quality
- Cultural and historic resources
- Parkland and recreational resources
- Visual resources
- Hazardous and contaminated materials
- Surface waters, navigable waters, and wetlands
- Coastal resources
- Land use
- Social considerations, including environmental justice
- Economic considerations, including property acquisition and potential effects to local and/or regional businesses
- Construction effects
- Secondary and cumulative effects

